BEAUTIFUL THINGS.

Beautiful eyes are those that wear-- 11 million times a day or fair.
Wholesome honest printed there.
Beautiful eyes are those that show--
Like crystal planes where heart-fire glows,
Beautiful thoughts that burn below.
Beautiful lips are those whose words
Leap from the heart like songs of birds,
Yet whose utterance produces grins.
Beautiful hands are those that do
Work that is earnest, brave and true,
Moment by moment the long day through.
Beautiful feet are those that go
To the industries of the land and sea,
To the fields of the farmer and the mill.
Beautiful shoulders are those that bear
Crossed burdens of honest care,
With patient grace and daily prayer.
Beautiful hair is that which shines
Like the sun of happiness,
Whose rays of joy and love
Shine from the crown of the head.
Beautiful light, at set of eve,
Beautiful rest, with work well done,
Beautiful life, with work well done,
Beautiful peace, when all is done,
Where there is peace, where there is love,
Over warm and hands--oh, beautiful sleep,
--Allen P. Allerton.

Society Items.

Bright colors are not considered in regard to gentlemen's noses. Miss Bridget McLaughlin has accepted a cullinary position in the house of Mrs. Brown. Among the newest thing in stockings is the baby's foot.
Charley Homer has sold this double-bladed back-knife to Dave Wilkins.
Miss Margaret Seely has relinquished her position as maid-of-all-work in the family of Deacon Jones. We are pleased to learn that Tammy Tucker
has consented to remain with Messrs Tawell & Doudlewell; Tommy
is the favorite cash-boy in the establishment, and it would have been disficult to supply his place had he insisted upon retiring. Rumor has it that the beautiful poem in The Weekly Gusher, beginning, "At night the katydid sings to the sun that is hid,"
is from the graceful pen of the charming Miss Adellehead. On dit that Betsy Jenner is soon to be led to the altar by one of the hands at the gas factory. We are in a position to state positively that Mrs. Thomas' baby is not teething; it has only colic. John Bourbon is recovering from his recent severe attack of delirium tremens.
There was a pleasant little marble party in Joe Baxter's back yard last Saturday afternoon; it was entirely informal; peanuts were the only refreshments served. Barry Blanks left for the Canadas quite unexpectedly yesterday morning; the amount has not yet been ascertained. Billy Brackett had a candy scrape at his father's residence Thursday evening; in the same phrasology of one of the young men present, they had a box time. Johnny Belcher has not been able to attend to his duties as errand-boy at the saw mill on account of a sore heel. Mrs.
Fluffy's new switch is a splendid match for her beautiful bay tresses. The McGilloudays have just returned from Cork, Europe. They were the life of the steamer during the voyage. [Baton Transcript.

A bill before Congress provides for the making of a postal card with a flexible flap, which shall conceal the writing on the face of the card. This is positive cruelty to a large number of people--including country postmasters--whose whole source of information, aside from current gossip, are postal cards that have been addressed to their neighbors. Still, the few miserable fellows for the many, and it is a lamentable fact that a large majority of correspondents prefer that their postal cards shall be read only by the persons to whom they are addressed.
It is also true that one cent postage can be made far more useful to the public and yet be no more costly to the government than it now is. A small sheet of paper weighing no more than a postal card can be cut in a shape that admits of folding and sealing, and if the government would supply such a sheet at the same price as the card, the income of the department would be as great as now and the expense no greater. As the postal service is for the public accommodation, and not for public revenue, every possible increase of facilities for correspondence should be granted. [N. Y. Herald.

A colored preacher of western Ohio thus holds forth: "I delight to observe how new laws against adulteration. There's no too much ob dis-yere ting goid on. Ef a man can't keep de seclen commandment ob de Lord, den I say let's hang him up by de neck till he stops it--dat's all."

Verbosity.

Young newspaper reporters and writers usually have a good deal of "overflow"--some of so much that they seem to think the main object of writing is to fill up space. They make a paragraph out of a squib, and a page out of an item. The New Haven Register thus caricatures one green hand:

Young Fitzmaurice has just entered journalistic life, and is going to "cut a swath." He believes in putting in a good deal of "color" in his items, and prides himself on his work. He sharpened a couple of pencils at both ends, this morning, and began:

We regret to inform our readers that the estimable Miss Jones, of Jonesboro, daughter of Congressman
Jones, and grand-daughter of the well-known founder of the village of Jonesboro, has met with a fearful accident.
As she was driving along the boulevard at the speed of the wind, the horse, a half-brother of Maul B., and full sister of St. Julien, came suddenly startled by the uprising of a covey of partridges, which are unusually numerous in that section, this morning, and promissed a great deal of fun
for the sportsmen, when the law is off
--and as they circled, the frightened
steed tore down the avenue like mad, until stopped by the gallant hand of Officer G. of the Ninth Ward.

"Her injuries were a contusion of the ankle, which did not amount to a fracture; and the unfortunate girl was carried home to her grief-stricken parents and sympathizing friends."
The city editor at this point was anxious for copy, and glancing it over rapidly, crumpled it in his hand, remarking: "Fitz, you have piled up the words, haven't you. You've given all your fancy painted. Good boy! But remember, this department is the domain of fact." He then scribbled:
"The daughter of Congressman
Jones was run away with by a spirited horse, on the avenue, yesterday afternoon. Injuries nominal."

The Pronunciation of "u."

Ninety-nine out of every hundred Northerners will say institoot instead institute, dooty for duty--a perfect rhyme to the word beauty. They will call new and news, noo, noos-- and so on through the dozens and hundreds of similar words. Not a dictionary in the English language authorizes this. In student and stupid, the "u" has the same sound as in cupid, and should not be pronounced stoddeut and stoopid, as so many teachers are in the habit of sounding them.

It is a vulgarism to call a door a doah--as we all admit--isn't it as much of a vulgarism to call a newspaper a noospaper? One vulgarism is Northern, and the other is Southern, that's the only difference. When the London Punch wishes to burlesque the pronunciation of servants, it makes them call the duke the dook, the tutor the tootor, and a tube a toob. You never find the best Northern speakers, such as Wendell Phillips, George William Curtis, Emerson, Holmes, and men of that class,
saying noo for new, Toosday for Tuesday, avenuoo for avenue, or calling a dupe a doop. It is a fault that a Southerner never falls into. He has slips enough of another kind, but he doesn't slip on the long "u." As many of our teachers have never had their attention called to this, I hope they will excuse this notice. [Southern Letter.

The statistics of book publication
in the United States last year present some curious facts. There were published in this country during the year just closed 2,991 books, an increase of 915 over the previous year. In Great Britain there was a falling off of 300
volumes, which is a significant fact,
in view of the development of the trade there. The increase of 915 was made up--200 in works of fiction, 100
in juvenile books, 100 in theology, 71
in books of reference, 75 in biography
and history, 60 in poetry, 60 in travel, 80 in medical works, and the balance in works of general character. The enormous increase in works of fiction is due to the cheap reprints of foreign novels.

In 1870 the census showed that Kentucky had a Chinese population of
1. The census of 1880 shows that it was then 10. This is an increase of one thousand per cent., and is a very alarming fact. If it goes on in the same ratio we shall have 100 in 1890, 1,000 in 1900, and 1,000,000 in 1930.

The boy who was kept after school
for bad orthography said he was "spell bound."

Drinking on Two Legs.

He was haggard, careworn, and sore of foot. The dust of the Queen City was hanging in graceful festoons
upon his eyebrows and wildly di-shveled hair. He had been chasing a Third-avenue car for fourteen blocks,
but the conductor was rhapsodically
gazing in the eyes of a bewitching
little nurse girl, whose infantile charge was cutting teeth upon the bell-punch, and had not discovered that he was followed, and his exhausted partner dragged himself all limp
and weary into the Burnet House bar,
and called for a little bit of sugar, and a little bit of lemon, with just a squeeze of whisky to give it a flavor
you know. We said limp. Yes, very limp, for this unfortunate citizen was the possessor of a right leg that was full six inches shorter than his left. Sinking upon the shortened limb, his head barely appeared above the bar when he gave the white aproned attendant his order. The stimulant was mixed, and the con-
founder of lemon-juice and Bourbon
was about to turn to make a deposit of the exhilarating beverage before the thirsty inquirer, when the latter arose upon the elongated limb, and to the surprise of the barkeeper, he found a six-foot man confronting him.

"Where did that other fellow go?"
asked the astonished waiter.

"What fellow?" asked the unfortunate possessor of the shortened limb.

"Why, that insignificant little son of a gun that called for whisky and sugar?"

The citizen sank back on the game leg overcome with mortification, while the barkeeper struck an attitude that would have surprised Madam Tus-saud's man of wax. At the conclusion of the tableau the twain drank at the expense of the house, and the curtain was rung down to slow music and red fire. [Cincinnati Gazette.

SATISFYING THE MAJESTY OF THE LAW.--There is a Justice of the Peace
out in Crosby county. Week before last he found a man guilty of shooting a bull that did not belong to him, and fined him $75. "Why, Judge," said
the doomed man, "I haven't got no $75; I can't pay no such fine."

"The State of Texas puts me in this office to find out a way to make men pay their fines. You will cut cedar poles until you have cut enough to satisfy the majesty of the law," replied the Justice. "But, Judge, what use has the State of Texas for cedar poles?" "The State of Texas hasn't got no use for cedar poles. It's this court who needs them cedar poles to build a fence. I'll take the poles, and settle with the State of Texas for them." And the poor devil is cutting cedar poles for the State of Texas now. [Texas Siftings.

THE SAFEST SEAT.--A correspondent writes to us to know which, in our judgment, is the safest seat in case of a railroad collision, as he wishes to settle a controversy with some friends.
From a long and painful study in this matter, and calling to our aid a ripe experience, we would say, without fear of successful denial, that the safest seat in case of a railroad collision is the top rail of a reliable fence
about four miles in a northeasterly direction from the collision. [Lara-nio Broomerang.

The epithet, "turn-coat" had its origin in Saxony. The dominions of the Duke of Saxony being between France and Savoy, one of the early Dukes hit upon the device of a coat of blue on one side and white on the other. When he wished to be thought in the Spanish interest, he wore the blue outside; when he wished to be considered on the side of the French,
he wore the white on the outside.
From this he was called "Emanuel Turncoat."

A lady writer fault-fault with the manners of the King of Sweden, because his Majesty scratched his royal head with a fork at dinner. Some people are entirely too fastidious.
Would the lady have had his Majesty scratch his head with the leg of a chair? [Somerville Journal.

Among the epitaphs in a churchyard in England is one over a (averkeeper, in which the pious glimmers but dimly amidst the suggestions of an eye to the main chance:

"Beneath this stone, in hope of Zion,
Doth lie the landlord of the 'Lion.'
His son keeps on the business still,
Religion unto the heavenly will."

When David Davis marries that Baltimore widow, will he get down off the fence, or will the bride have to climb up and sit on it side saddle?
This is really a National topic. [Den-

The Supreme Court, which has passed the Senate, provides that the Clerk of the Court of Appeals shall also be clerk of that court. This has been the bone of contention for some time, and now that it has been partially removed it is presumed that the bill will go through and become a law. We can see how the court will assist the Court of Appeals to much extent, since cases can be appealed from it to that court. The effect will be to give persons against whom a judgment is assessed a longer time to secure their creditors. The bill establishing the Superior Court, shows considerable ingenuity. The constitution provides that there can be but one court of final jurisdiction in Kentucky, hence the right to appeal from it and a further clause giving it some original jurisdiction. That original jurisdiction is confined only to estates, and as a case of this kind does not occur in a score of years, its business in that direction will not be heavy. It looks very much like the Superior Court is to be established more with a view of creating more officers for the army of lawyers than it is to relieve the Court of Appeals.

We very much fear that the so-called investigation of the disgraceful abuse of the pardoning power by Gov. Blackburn will amount to very little more than an attempt to whitewash him. A great many members are exceedingly proud of any little attention shown them by a Governor, albeit that Governor is worthy of no consideration. It is one of the characteristics of the small mind to look up to a man in high position, and to feel that he is much nearer the divine than common people, and the number of small minds largely predominates in our Legislature. Besides, there are many that are seeking favors for friends or clients at the hands of the Governor, and it would do to incur his anger by voting to censure him as he so well deserves. We do trust that the investigation may be full and complete, and that the Executive may be shown up in his own proper light.

The appointment committee are going to put their foot in it so sure as they attempt to make eleven democratic districts in this State. It can't be done, therefore it would be a great deal better to let them remain as at present. We have got nine sure, and if one is elected for the state at large, we have him by fully 50,000. Then Mat Adams can beat White in a fair race in his district, and we shall again have an unbroken delegation. Should the 8th be made of the counties that are proposed, it will be republican by 300 majority, and no democratic votes be a unit of money will make the race. We hope that the hundreds of protests that have gone up from this portion of the country will bring the committee to its senses, and that it will decide to let well enough alone and leave the districts as are.

Notwithstanding the surplus revenue is now $120,000,000 a year, the republicans have in caucus decided to vote down all proposals for a reduction of the tax on whisky and tobacco, so the sub-committee of the Ways and Means, labors go for naught. That committee has prepared a report, reducing the tax on whisky to fifty cents, tobacco to ten cents, and a reduction of about fifty per cent. in the special taxes now imposed on dealers in the articles mentioned.

Ex-Rex, L. D. PARKER, now the republican representative of Pulaski county in the Legislature, says that newspapers are the greatest humbug of the nineteenth century. We agree with brother Parker. A married man can't even run off and have a good time with a charming little lassie, but what some ill-mannered newspaper must publish it to the world. They are a nuisance, and Governor Blackburn ought to have the last one in this country and Europe suppressed.

The Columbia Spectator, printed at the home of Gen. Frank Wolford, hoists his name for Governor, and it is presumed that it is but a reflection of the old hero's wishes. The office of Governor is too poor a one for Wolford. Let's give him something that will assist him in his old age and make his last his best days.

SENATOR SHERMAN has been exonerated by the committee appointed to investigate the Treasury expenditures. This is as was intended. The committee stood, never republicans to two democrats.

SECRETARY OF STATE BLACKBURN allowed the correspondence of the Louisville Post to keep into those books of his the other day, but took good pains not to let him find out anything.

The Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee has been completed by the selection of the following Senators to act in concert with the committee: Messrs. Farney, of California; Harris, of Tennessee; Morgan, of Alabama; Davis, of West Virginia; Gorman, of Maryland; Malpherson, of New Jersey, and Coke, of Texas. The Committee has selected Gen. Rosecrans Chairman, and it is likely that our own Phil Thompson will be made Secretary. The latter will be especially a good selection.

The New York Sun pronounces the appointment of Judge Blatchford to the Supreme Bench as one of the wisest acts the President could do. He has accepted and will no doubt be confirmed at once.

GATY has returned from his visit to Florida for the benefit of his health and is again at New York, lying on the democrats for the benefit of the Cincinnati Enquirer.

LEGISLATIVE.

The Supreme Court bill has passed the Senate.

The Appropriation bill is fixed for Tuesday next.

A bill to fine clerks $100 for failing to index certain cases, passed the Senate.

Senator Main withdrew his support for Court bill. He believes like many others that it is a job.

A bill to allow the Trustees of the Standard Male and Female Seminary to sell a part of its lot, has passed the House.

A bill to repeal the law passed two years ago, which required hangings to be done in private is being debated and we trust will be passed.

A bill has passed to incorporate the town of Science Hill, in Pulaski. This is perhaps the smallest place ever described by the name of a town.

The bill to allow Circuit Clerks 20 per cent of the fines and forfeitures in Commonwealth cases, consumed the whole of Wednesday, without a vote being reached.

A bill chartering the Eastern Transportation Company which is to build an underground railroad from First to Fourth Streets in Louisville, has passed the Legislature.

Resolutions to appoint a Committee to investigate the official conduct of A. G. Gentry, Commonwealth's Attorney, and Charles Godshaw, Trustee of the Jury Fund, in the Louisville District, have been introduced in the House.

Senator Main withdrew his resolution, introduced several days ago, to appropriate a sum sufficient ($100 it was thought) to repair the tomb and inelure of Isaac Shelby, Kentucky's first Governor. Isaac Shelby, Jr., had written the Senator that the descendants of the Governor had themselves provided the means necessary for that purpose.

The old Governor will have to show up after all, and he might have saved himself much trouble had he done so at first. Mr. Breckinridge's resolution requesting the Secretary of the State to furnish a transcript of all pardons, respite and remissions of fines granted by Governor Blackburn, together with facts upon which such pardons, respites and remissions were granted, was passed by a vote of 41 to 34. Mr. Hansford voted against it again.

Senator Fogle, of Lebanon, is doing a good work in pressing the repeal of the unconstitutional tax for the A. and M. College. In a speech against the law, Tuesday, he intimated that the wine-champagne, chicken salad and baked turkey spread by the people of Lexington, had much to do with the tabling of the bill in the House, and he hoped that the effects of that banquet had sufficiently died out to enable those who participated, to look at the question through unclouded spectacles and in the true interest of the people.

NOTES OF CURRENT EVENTS.
To-day is the one set for the hanging of Isaac Turner, at Lexington.
Jay Gould exhibited $53,000,000 in stocks in Wall Street, Tuesday.
A man named Askin Ratliff, was killed by lightning in Taylor county last Sunday.
It cost the Republican National Committee $200,000 to carry Indiana for Garfield.
There is a reaction from the depressed feeling in the stock market, and the stocks are higher all around.
The National Prohibition Executive Committee has called a Convention to meet in Chicago, August 20.
Miss Winifred, of St. Louis, rode a bicycle 600 miles in six consecutive days, with an excess of 173 miles.
A riot occurred in North Carolina between the whites and negroes, which had to be suppressed by the military.
A terrible earthquake is reported from Costa Rica. Four towns and thousands of people were swallowed up.
Farmers all over the State are appealing to the Legislature for protection to their sheep from the ravages of dogs.
J. L. Coger's large warehouse burned at Midway. It was filled with grain belonging to farmers, and the loss is fixed at $25,000.
Sarah E. Howe, the President of the late Woman's Deposit Bank, Boston, has been sentenced to three years imprisonment for swindling.
The Iowa Senate passed the House bill yesterday fixing the date of prohibitory amendment election for June 27, 1882, by a vote of 41 to 11.
Miss Willie Bowman, daughter of Commissioner Bowman, who was poisoned at Frankfort, by the carelessness of the druggist, is recovering.
Two white convicts, undergoing a sentence of 18 years imprisonment for the murder of their father, escaped from the penitentiary at Richmond, Va.
The Republicans of Christian county have decided to give the nomination for Judge to the colored "friend and brother," in Pulaski county, the white republicans refused to vote for the colored candidate for that office.

An appropriation of $20,000,000 for improving the Mississippi River favorably reported.
James M. Davis, deputy U. S. Collector, was shot and killed by persons who hid in ambush, near McMinnville, Tenn.
The House added $50,000 to the $100,000 appropriated by the Senate for the relief of the destitute people in the flooded districts of the South.
The old lady at Jennings, Ind., who resolved to carve herself to death, died Wednesday, in the evening upon the 44th day of her fast.
Seville delivered his long-promised lecture on the business trial at Chicago, Tuesday night, but the audience was not large enough to pay expenses.
The banking firm of Ballinger, McQuaid & Co., of Fairbury, Pa., suspended yesterday. Liabilities between $20,000 and $30,000, assets not known.
Three-fourths of our army is continually used to watch and fight the Indians. This watching and fighting has cost the United States for the past year, about $20,000,000.
Cooking and Edmunds both remaining, the President has nominated Judge Hamlin, of New York, to the Supreme Bench, who it is said will jump at the offer.
It is now estimated that over 80,000 square miles of territory have been inundated by the floods in the Mississippi Valley, and the total number of sufferers is placed at 60,000.
The Court of Appeals has decided that the fact that there has been employment to trade as a female does not relieve the husband from his obligations to support her.
The Ohio Senate has adopted by a vote of 24 to 6 a resolution asking the President to pardon Sergeant Mason. The bill is being signed in many parts of the country to the same end.
Three children of John Hermann, of Nashville, were taken down by violent symptoms of poisoning after eating some maple sugar yesterday. One died, and another is not expected to live.
John Russell Young, who accompanied Gen. Grant on his tour around the world, as correspondent of the New York Herald, has been appointed Minister to China at Peking, Peking request.

Gov. Blackburn has granted a respite of sixty days to Ellis Craft and Wm. Neel, who are confined in the Lexington Jail under sentence of death for the murder of Emma Thomas and the Gibbons children in Ashland.

The creditors of Newcomb, Buchanan & Co., met Wednesday in Louisville, and ascertained that the liabilities of the firm are $1,040,398.24; assets in cash, whisky and accounts $233,037.42. It seems that it ought to be able to pull through with that.

Great excitement was caused at Dallas, Texas, Wednesday, by the shooting and killing of ex-Mayor Thurnmond by R. E. Cowart in the court-room. The murdered man was a native of Kentucky. Had feeling had existed between the parties for a long time.

Sergeant Mason has been taken in from the Albany Penitentiary. In a letter to the Evening Critic, he says among other things: "I must say I don't want to be pardoned by no Quaker President; all I ask is for my darling wife and baby to be placed beyond want."

The 115th anniversary of Gen. Jackson's birth was celebrated at Chicago, Wednesday, by a reception of the Iron Club. Speeches were made by Hon. Thomas H. Hendricks and others, and letters read from S. J. Tilden, Bayard, Seymour, Hancock, Pendleton, Watterson, &c.

The democratic candidates in this county have acted wisely in showing a plan by which to settle their respective claims. The poll-book will be taken to the door of every democrat and no man will have an opportunity to bolt because the Convention or primary was "packed."

A company has been chartered by the Kentucky Legislature called the Louisville Harrodsburg and Virginia Railroad, to build a line from that city to connect with the Cincinnati Southern. The cost of the road is estimated at three millions of dollars, and it is understood the money required has been subscribed.

Dispatches from Ashland state that the bloody coat of Wm. Neel, one of the men charged with the murder of the Gibbons family, was found under a bridge, not more than fifty feet from the scene of the murder. The coat is fully identified, and the proof is clear that he wore this coat on the day preceding the murder.

The Edmunds anti-polygamy bill passed the House Tuesday by a vote of 100 to 42. It makes the crime of polygamy punishable by fine and imprisonment, and a sufficient cause for challenging a juror; legitimates the issue of polygamous or bigamous marriages until Jan. 1, 1883; disfranchises polygamists, and provides for the appointment of a commission of five persons by the President, the duties of the members being to canvass election returns and issue certificates of elections to persons who are eligible and appear to have been lawfully elected.

In his letter declining the appointment, Conkling says: "The high and unexpected honor you proffer by selecting me as an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States is greatly valued. It will ever be a matter of pride and satisfaction that you and the Senate deemed me fit for so grave and exalted a trust; but for reasons which you would not fail to appreciate I am constrained to decline. Although urgent demands on my time just now prevent my accepting your cordial invitation to pass a few days with you in Washington, let me hold this as a pleasure deferred, but not lost."

PARADE, March 15, 1882.
Died Tuesday, before beginning on Paris, let me say a parting word about dear Bowling Green. I had passed the place in journeying again and again, and only seeing what meets the eye, around the bustling depot, with its hygienic surroundings. I had said to myself again and again, "I should not like to live in Bowling Green."

And thus unconsciously fulfilling a prophecy, as often, one day, I went to Bowling Green, simply because the LORD called me to go, and as I have long since learned to go gladly and cheerfully at HIS call, even into the most unpleasant places, I went expecting nothing from the place itself. How little do we know! Bowling Green is one of the most charming places we have ever visited. A beautiful little city to begin with, handsomely built up and with an unusually refined and intelligent population. One blot, and that Kentucky's blot, mars the scene—WHISKY. It is drowned in that, wholesale and retail. Also! The closing services of the meeting deserve especial mention. The meeting for men only, on Tuesday night, was an impressive occasion. This was appointed, simply because in the ordinary services, the body of the church was filled with women, and the "men folks" had to do the best they could, which was a very poor "best"—standing in the aisles, hovering around the doors, clinging to the window sills, squinting on the outside steps, and even gathering on the outside stairs and sidewalk. And all this with most exemplary patience and gentleness. By a determined they should have one comfortable hearing, at least, and Tuesday night turned all the good ladies out. To their honor, be it spoken, not one attempted to get in on the plausible plea of "just to hear the service"—and they remained at home like the good, obedient women they are. It was an unusual experience for me, to face that packed mass of bearded faces, with never a hint to break the uniformity. I must say, I missed the gentleness that had so often encouraged me in plead for sons, but the sight was very impressive, of so many men, eager to hear the gospel. A blessed harvest of 61 souls crowned the service, making many hearts glad.

The last night was the feast, though, so many lingered came in, for whom anxious hearts were breaking, and weeping eyes were streaming, that it turned into a very jubilee of joy towards the last. It was nearly 11 o'clock when three roving gals broke the quiet of the little city, with a sound of gladness that none of us can ever forget. One day we shall remember it when the voice of shouting on the "Golden Shore" shall be like the "sound of many waters"—but it shall be the same old shout—PRAISE THE LORD—HALLELUJAH!

Will your readers think me a fanatic if I point out a few facts in the numbers of confessions for soul and body in the blessed Bowling Green meeting? If I can only persuade some soul longing to know more of God and HIS ways, to study this divine significance of numbers, I shall be glad, for the sake of such, to be called and thought a "crank," or "dreamy mystic," or "fanatic"—or any other devil's name, the "price of darkness" manages to affix to the LORD's servants who give him trouble. 777 for soul and 421 for body. The three perfect numbers, strike even a careless observer. 3 and 7 are the LORDS numbers, especially. Notice here are 3 7's—making 21 or 347. 777 has in itself 7 hundreds, 7 tens, 7 units. A concentration of meaning, it there be any meaning in numbers at all. In 421 you have 4 plus 2 plus 1—7 again. Take the front two figures 42 and you have 427 or 347 again. All of which is a voice from heaven to me, bidding me "be of good cheer." If others hear it not, I do not reproach, I only say as did one of old, "They heard not the voice of HIM who spoke to me." Yet if they listen they will hear. O what words of love are coming from heaven every day that find not listening ears, and return whence they come, only in fruitless echoes. It pains the heart to know this.

Paris is a good deal larger than the Paris I knew 12 years ago. Quite a village has been built across Hinton Creek, and the suburbs have spread in every direction. The new Court-house is a magnificent structure, erected at a cost of over $100,000. We have our services in its spacious Court-room—accommodating 1,000 under pressure, and seating 800. The vestibule can be seated for 200 or 300 more, when the weather is mild enough to open all the doors, which will be the case in a day or two. At present the room is crowded above and below every night, and the lower floor is well filled at the 3 p. m. service. I cannot give you results to the close of the last week in time for your Friday's issue, but will post you to date. In the 83 days already passed there were confessions as follows: Thursday night, none; Friday, day and night, none; Saturday afternoon two for soul and one for body; Saturday night, 1 for soul; Sunday morning, none; afternoon, children's meeting, 52; night, 3 for soul, 1 for body; Monday afternoon, none; night, 6 for soul; Tuesday afternoon, 2 for body; night, 1 for soul. Total, 68 for soul, and 4 for body. I have made one outside visit in the sick, and anointed one colored woman, desperately sick. We work along trustfully. One look at the "giant" would sink all courage. One look at JESUS fills the soul with bounding hope. So we don't look at giants at all—only at JESUS, and go on our way rejoicing! All well. PRAISE THE LORD. Ever in Jesus.

Track-laying on the Knoxville Branch R. R. beyond Livingston is progressing rapidly.

The K. C. engineers went up to Livingston Tuesday evening. They will make a few surveys in that neighborhood, after which the road will be located at Mt. Vernon.

On Tuesday the trial of James Bishop, A. J. Henderson and Wm. Hysinger, alleged murderers of Mary and Belle Sigman was called before Judge McClure. The defendants were represented by the following array of counsel: Judge Geo. Denny, Jr., Col. W. O. Bradley, J. K. McClary, J. W. Brown, F. H. Reppert. The County Attorney was assisted by J. B. Fish and N. D. Wilcox. The Court-house was filled with people. The County Attorney announced that the Commonwealth was ready to proceed with the investigation. Col. Bradley then stated that the defense desired to use Judge McClure as a witness, and in view of this fact he presumed the Judge would not care to preside in the case. The County Attorney remarked that the aid had been well changed for several days with a rumor that Judge McClure would be sworn off of the case, and he hoped the Judge would insist on an affidavit before he vacated the bench; that the prosecution were willing for Judge McClure to preside in the case even though he was a witness for the defense. Judge McClure then announced that if the defendants objected to his trying the case, they must file their affidavits and follow the course prescribed by law. The affidavit was at once made and presented. A new court was organized immediately, consisting of Squires A. J. Pike and H. D. Burnett. The County Attorney stated that he had no power to object to Squire Pike, but that relatives of the deceased preferred that he would not sit in the case. Squire Pike desired to withdraw from the case, but the defendants' attorneys insisted that he should remain. He finally consented to stay in the case. It is generally believed that the Court will do what is right. The defendants filed an affidavit asking for a continuance of the case, which was granted. The trial was set for yesterday (Thursday), and it was expected that it would certainly begin as soon as the Court convened. Since the adjournment of Court on Tuesday, Col. W. O. Welch and Judge M. C. Sanley, of Stanford, have been employed for the prosecution. They came up Wednesday evening. The horrible murder of Mary Sigman and her mother, and the consequent trial of these parties are the all-absorbing topics among our people who are determined that the affair shall be fully investigated.

PERSONAL.

—Mr. T. F. FENNEL is visiting relatives in Cincinnati.

—Mrs. S. G. TOWNSEND has returned from Louisville.

—Miss ELIZA HARRIS is spending a few days with relatives in Danville.

—Wm. E. McAFEE, Esq., a popular attorney of Louisville, was here Tuesday.

—Miss S. E. LUCKY, of Lexington, is visiting her sister Mrs. John J. McRoberts.

—Mr. W. L. HOLT, representing the McCannick Harvesting Machine Co., is here getting ready for the coming season.

—Mrs. M. T. BROWN has returned from a visit to her sister in Campbellsville, who was convalescing when she left.

—Miss S. H. WALKER, of Louisville, who has been with her father, Mr. P. L. Simpson for some time, has returned to her home in Louisville.

—Mr. L. B. AMSTRONG, of Louisville, manufacturer and inventor of a Superior Elastic Roof Paint, has applied it to several here, with very gratifying results.

—MISS ANNA OWEN, of Woodford, Sue Whitley, of Danville, and Mattie Evans, of this county, a charming trio, are, with Mr. A. O. Whitley, guests of Mr. J. E. Farris.

LOCAL WAITERS.

Get a Steak Drill with W. H. Higgins.

IRISH CAGE show at W. H. Higgins' tomorrow.

McALISTER & BRIGHT have just received a choice lot of fruit.

A WARMER bedstead, a high-seat baby chair and 200 sile bottles, for sale. Apply to B. W. Vandever.

It is more than probable that the Kirk will close for the season a week from tonight. This evening will determine it.

Owing to the scarcity and high price of beef, it is compelled to sell the best round and sirloin steak at 12 cents. J. T. Harris.

Our stock of Spring Clothing is complete. Make your selection while the goods are fresh and the sizes unbroken. Brice, Warren & Co.

LITTLE PERSONAL.—We neglected to mention in our last issue the arrival of another boy at Elder Jos. Ballou's. It is the youngest child of a youngster.

THE C. S. R. R. will not run through day passenger trains on Sunday, as announced, but about the middle of April will put on a regular Sunday train to High Bridge.

REMEMBER we are headquarters for Flour, Meal and family supplies of all kinds. Best straight Flour $1.25; Patent, $1.50; straight family, $1.00. McAlister & Bright.

THREE YEARS.—Robert Rich, who was sent up for three years for robbing the mail between Burnside and Monticello, has been taken to his quarters at the Detroit House of Correction.

MR. B. K. WEAREN has a new lot of beautiful and genuine Oil Paintings in gilt frames which he sells very low. Also the best and prettiest Chromes, Cabinet Photographs & Frames, &c.

THIS is absolutely the dullest week we have ever experienced in Stanford. Not a single thing has happened worthy of note, and the farmers being busy, the streets have presented a very deserted air.

POSTMASTER ALPHONSO is "held" for postage. That is his window is full of letters that are. It is curious to look at them. Some have a cent stamp on them, others stamps that have been cancelled, and still others that are short of postage. And still the sender appears to be persons of ordinary sense.

MR. H. C. KAUFMAN, present incumbent, is a candidate for re-election to the office of County Attorney of Garrard. He has filled the position for the last four years with much satisfaction to the people and credit to himself, and a re-election would be but an expression of appreciation of his services.

THE Court-house square is kept in a wretched condition, whereas with just a little trouble and hardly no expense, it might be made an ornament to the town. In the first place needs cleaning up badly. Then grass seed be sown on it, and nice young trees set out. It would also be a good idea to secure it against hogs, which not only ruin things torturing on the square, but are frequently seen promiscuously in the halls of the Court-house.

Two Revs will be opened to-night promptly at 7 o'clock.

SKED Irish potatoes at McAlister & Bright's; $1.25 per bushel.

PURCH of Fish and Oysters at J. T. Harris' next Saturday evening.

GARDENING has commenced in earnest. It would be just as well, however, to wait a month.

THIS is St. Patrick's day, and as such will be celebrated wherever there are enough Irish to form a procession.

PAINTING needing corn can be supplied at Lincoln Mills at any time with any amount from a bushel to 100 barrels, from $1 to $1.25 per barrel.

We can't wait on those who are indebted to us any longer, and intend putting their accounts in the hands of an officer if not settled immediately. R. Mattingly & Son.

DIVORCE.—Another suit for divorce has been entered: Mrs. Eliza vs. Thomas (Tary, Cause, abandonment. Mrs. Tary was some six months ago declared a lunatic and sent to the Asylum, but she recovered and on her return sought again the bed and board of her illegitimate lord, when he would have nothing to do with her. Hence the suit.

A SPOKEMAN case of lunacy was tried before Judge Brown and jury, Wednesday. The woman, Rebecca Chesney, was cured for George Saunders before his arrest and trial, and was a witness in the case. It seems that she was threatened, or imagined she was, with death, and her great fear seems to be that the R-K-K-K will take her at night and kill her. During the day she is perfectly docile, but at night she raves and exhibits the most intense terror. The jury pronounced her insane and ordered her to be taken to the Asylum.

KENTUCKY REAL ESTATE JOURNAL.—This office is getting out a neat little paper with the above title. It is owned and edited by the firm of W. S. Francis & Co., which is composed of Mr. Francis, of Louisville, and W. H. Miller, of Stanford, and they advertise more than a hundred farms in this, Casey and Pulaski counties for sale. They are attracting many immigrants to this section and thereby enhancing the value of our excellent lands. Those wishing to sell or buy can not do better than to address them as above.

THERE are 333 cases on the docket of the Circuit Court, which commences Monday next, and they are divided as follows: Commonwealth, 121; Equity Appeals, 18; Motions, 6; Common Law, 40; Common Law Appeals, 22; Old Equity 131. Most of the Commonwealth cases are for violations of the whiskey laws, but four are for murder: S. B. Conn, for killing McCoy, for Garrard county; Graham and Reid, for killing Cam Rowsey; J. W. Gooch for killing Constable Killian, and James Mullins for killing another negro. The term can last four weeks.

MARRIAGES.

—Miss Lettie Moran, lately of Madison, but who, with her mother and family have been travelling in the West for some years, was married at Oakland, California, last Thursday, to Mr. T. S. Burman, of Richmond, Ky. Miss Lettie is a most lovely representative of her sex, both in personal and mental charms.

—A year or two ago Dr. Lewis, of Louisville, addressed a letter to Miss Julia Cox, of Eminence, and although unacquainted with her, asked the pleasure of a correspondence. Miss Cox complied with his request, and from spouney letters, they came to know each other and to enjoy all those little nick-nacks, such as kissing and hugging, so prized by lovers. He continued to write her letters, and at last the happy day was named. Then, when certain of his prize, he began to grow weary of it, and finally asked to be let off entirely. Miss Cox was not to be gotten rid of in that manner, so she brought suit against the meddling son-of-a-baw bones for $10,000 in the Chancery Court of Louisville. The case was heard this week, when a large number of the Doctor's letters were put up as evidence. They were exceedingly love sick, but the large crowd that the trial drew to the C. H. enjoyed them hugely. Wednesday the case was submitted, and the jury, after a short retirement, brought in a verdict for $10,000 damages. The case will go to the Court of Appeals, and in the meantime the Dr. will cogitate over the very dangerous past time of trying to play the masher. Let imitators take warning.

RELIGIOUS.

—Rev. J. M. Brice will preach at Preachersville, next Sunday afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

—So far about 950 conversions are reported at St. Paul's M. E. Church. The meetings continue with unabated interest. Harrison, the "boy preacher," is conducting them.

—We were present at the "jug breaking" of the Little Missionary workers of the Presbyterian Church, which occurred at Mr. E. R. Chesnut's, Wednesday evening. After a prayer by Mr. Elroy, the breaking commenced, during which he named the little fellows with appropriate accolades. The first jug broken was Kate Alvord's, and it contained $2.11; Willie Craig's had $1.15; Willie B. and George Barnes Wearen, $1.00; Johnnie Chesnut $1.00; Mary Craig, 61 cents; Martha Paxton, $1.75; Jennie Wearen, $1.70; Fozie and Eph. Pennington, $1.55; Jack Root, $1.00; Marie Warren, $1.33; Hallie Chesnut, $1.20; Cabell Owens, $1; the Helping Hands, $12.60; making in all $38.41. Quite a large sum for children not over ten years to raise for the Missionary cause. The jug breaking over, the little ones were invited to a nice table of good things that Mrs. Chesnut had prepared, and when we left they were enjoying themselves with all the rest that whetted appetites could give.

—BIBLE DOCTRINE OF HELL.—This is the title of a tract of 62 pages written by Morris Evans, D. D., of Richmond, Ky. The character of the writer assures us that the work is worthy of a careful reading. The author evinces considerable scholarship and research in its compilation. Prominent among the points discussed are mentioned the following: Teaching of Greek and Roman Mythology, Doctrine held by Theologians, Bible teaching. Under this head he presents a number of texts from which, according to his exegesis, he concludes, that if there be future retribution it is a state rather than a place, and leaves the reader to infer that he holds to the doctrine of final restoration. Dr. Evans handles the subject in a bold and fearless manner. There is nothing in the workavoring of the spirit of sect or party. His definition of Salvation is unique and scriptural, emphasizing the doctrine of Salvation from sin, rather than Salvation from Hell. In all, the work is an ingenious presentation of what he honestly conceives, no doubt, after years of painstaking research, to be taught in the word of God. After presenting quite a number of what he is pleased to call, "The absurdities of our Jewish Theology," he concludes, "The Hell appeal is to the bare principle of cowardice. The call to a noble Godlike character is many and glorious. This is the Christian; the other heathen. God appeals to our higher nature. He proposes to develop that. So must this teacher of his law who proposes to take the Holy Scriptures alone as the Man of his Counsel." The book is for sale by McRoberts & Stagg, at 25 cents.

LAND, STOCK AND CROP.

—Tallieson, French & Co., Winchester, have sold for $30,000.

—Wm. Dadds of this county, sold to Wm. Beasley, one griding for $250.

—John Kiechenbach, one of our Swiss immigrants, has purchased of Thomas Morris, his farm near Turnersville, at $36 per acre.

—G. J. White has sold to Dr. F. J. Dickinson, 294 acres of blue-grass land with good residence, four miles from Richmond, for $23,000.

—At Dr. J. P. Turner's sale high prices were obtained for stock. Three-year-old steers, $50; milk cows, $40 to $50; yearling steers, $25; plug horses, $10 to $20; hogs, over $5 per cwt; corn, $1.05 per barrel. —[Mt. Sterling Sentinel.]

—John Hille sold a few days since to Dr. J. Ayres 211 head of mountain cattle at $23 per head. Judge P. F. Adams bought in Montgomery county, last week, 2 pair of 3-year-old mules, paying $290 and $290. —[Richmond Herald.]

—Among the deeds recorded since our last report is one from Patsy J. and Fount Gooch, her husband, to J. N. Green, for 48 acres of land on Buck Creek, for $140.50 and another from J. Oaks and wife to P. H. Jones, 13 acres on Gilmore Creek, for $36.

—LEXINGTON COURT.—About 600 head of cattle on the market. Those that were sold brought from $5 to $6.25; 10 head of good 2-year-olds brought $11 per head, weighing about 900 pounds; 23 head at $45 per head; 18 yearlings at $25 per head; 36 yearlings at $30 per head; 29 yearlings at $23 per head; 40 good calves at $20 per head. About 100 mules on the street, but few sold; plug horses $20 to $60.

—In Cincinnati good cattle are in demand at $5 to $6 for choice butchers, $5.80 to $6.25 for extra shippers. Common are quoted at $2.50 to $3.35; common to choice oxen $2.50 to $5.50; feeding steers, $4.50 to $5.50. Hogs meet ready sale at $6.85 to $7.10 for selected butchers and heavy shippers; good packers, $6.35 to $6.85; common, $5.25 to $6. Sheep are in fine demand at $3 to $4 cents; cattle, 23 to 31 cents.

LINCOLN COUNTY.

Crab Orchard.

—A hop to-night at the Merston House.

—What about the machine shop? We have heard nothing about them for some time.

—"Have you solved the riddle?" is now heard on all sides; most of the answers are in the negative, however.

—There were parties here last week from Cincinnati looking at the Crab Orchard Springs with a view to buying them.

—Our little paragraph last week in regard to Dr. Lewis having rented property was a "mistake," as one of our haw-dilla has kindly explained.

—The men and small boys of our little village angle in the ponds at the Springs with much success. Dr. Doores caught a newt a few days ago that measured 13 inches.

—Messrs. W. F. Kennedy and Ray Moss are in Texas looking for locations. Aug. Lindemuth, a public salesman of D. H. Baldwin & Co., of Louisville, was here last week selling pianos.

—Mr. Daniel Barker, of this place, died Saturday night, at 8 o'clock, in the 37th year of his age. The deceased was born in New York State and raised in Michigan, and came to this place several months ago from Louisville. Those who knew him best speak of him as being noble and generous in all dealings with his fellowmen.

GARRARD COUNTY.

—I will take $2.50 for my chance for Bruce, Warren & Co.'s prize on the He-bus.

—Prof. Claggett has been compelled by his bad health to close his school at this place.

—The Attorneys of Wm. Austin filed their exceptions in the case at a called term of the Court, Monday 13th inst. The habeas corpus writ was issued on grounds of the Judges failure to sign an order in the case, but Austin was remanded.

—Married, March 15th, Mr. Jas. Literal to Mrs. S. E. Ray, all of the Buckeye neighborhood. On the same day, Mr. M. Lynch, of Washington county, to Miss Loe N. Green, of this county. The abandoned wife of Robt. Willis has returned to her father's.

—Mrs. A. G. Daniel and daughter, Miss Minnie, of Atlanta, Ga., with Miss Jennings, of Alabama, are visiting relations here. Mrs. F. O. Young has returned from a visit to Lexington. Miss Mamie McRoberts, of Lincoln, returned home Thursday, from a visit to Miss Lizzy Huffmann. Jo Hicks will move to Danville this week to take the position of foreman in the Plating Mills there. Mrs. Mag. Dunn has returned to Henderson.

PULASKI COUNTY.

Eubank Station.

—A debating society was organized here last week; meets every Tuesday night.

—Frank Kattfeldon, of Penna., bought of Geo. Brewer, his farm of 90 acres 1 mile east of this place, for $300.

—A falling tree struck W. E. Perkins a few days ago, knocking him ancleless, and at last accounts he was very low.

—J. C. Durham's school at this place continues to grow in interest. About 40 pupils are now in attendance, and an assistant teacher is kept busy hearing the minor classes.

—A calf belonging to E. S. Gooch was run into by a freight train the other day and taken upon the pilot where it rode into town, and when discovered showed no sign of injury.

—If the readers of the INTERIOR JOURNAL would know the price of a cow in this vicinity, let them inquire of Dr. Wm. Barker, as he has lately had some valuable experience in the cow trade.

—Three young men whose names I have not learned and who it is said were under the influence of strong drink, jumped off the freight train as it was passing here Saturday night, and one of them was severely hurt. He had a tooth knocked out and others shattered, a hole cut in his upper lip, another in his head and shoulders besides being bruised almost beyond recognition. So much for stealing a ride.

—Preaching here every Saturday and Sunday by Rev. Wm. Tyree. Sunday-school at Cuba every Sunday morning. Rev. W. T. Tyree is preaching at Pleasant Point near Tunnel City. The result of the meeting up to Sunday was 16 additions to the church. This makes 201 confessions under Rev. Tyree's preaching at this place, Double Springs and Pleasant Point. PRAISE THE LORD. Preaching at Double Springs Saturday and Sunday by Rev. Wm. Tyree.

—Miss Mattie Carson, of whose illness we spoke in our last, was buried here a few days ago. Miss Mattie was beautiful, kind and affectionate to those of her associates who could reciprocate her love, and while her body, surrounded by her schoolmates, was lowered to its last resting place within its silent vault, prayers went up from weeping friends, pleading to meet the loved and departed Mattie in that world where separations are not known.

—W. H. Todd, of Montague, Texas, is visiting friends in this community. J. W. Cundiff and family left Tuesday for Ohio, from whence they came about one year ago. We dislike to give up such men as Mr. Cundiff, but as he goes out wishes for his success follow him. Joseph Wright, the "boss" mill man, was here Monday. J. M. Smith, of Lexington, is here introducing a patent riding cross cut saw. Wm. Lison is off for Cincinnati this week. S. Henderson is at home with his family this week. Steve's many friends here are always ready to greet him back.

CASEY COUNTY.

Midleburg.

—No murders to note, thank the Lord.

—Peach trees are almost in full bloom.

—Joseph Coffey bought of Joshua Dur-han, last week, a very fine male for $145.

—Wm. Fagle sold a tract of land (48 acres), in the suburbs of town, to E. J. Dooly, for $1,800.

—Our excellent string band is composed of Wm. Miller, Allie Waters, L. W. McWhorter, Dodge Judd, J. A. Bryant and Prof. O. R. Waters, and the music they make is simply splendid.

—Mr. John Wesley, father of Dr. J. Y. Wesley, has lately bought the property formerly occupied by O. D. Jasper, and moved to it. A. Bryant will start with his family in a few days to California, where he will make his future home. O. D. Jasper and wife started to-day to Illinois, where they propose to live the remainder of their days. Mrs. McDowell Jones, who has been very low with typhoid fever, is getting well.

—We have a multiplicity of candidates in this county for the different county offices, a very large number of whom want "the office of Sheriff," while but very few want to be Sheriff. A large majority of those already announced are Democrats, and it is high time that the County Committee had adopted some plan to nominate a ticket. The Committee has heretofore treated this matter with a great deal of indifference, and the party has suffered accordingly. Let something be done immediately.

Liberty.

—Last Tuesday's INTERIOR JOURNAL reached here on Friday, and Friday's paper came in on Saturday.

—All of the finest hickory timber in this county is being made into spokes and sold at $8 per thousand at the stump.

—Mumps have been raging around this place for the last two months, and some of our young folks are having a serious time with them. All is well that ends well.

—Four of our most handsome young men attended the supper and tournament at Hustonville, last Friday night. They pronounce the supper first-class in every respect, and are extravagant in their compliments of the young lady waiters.

—Married, on the 8th, Robert Grider to Miss Flora A. Bell. On the 10th, M. A. Richardson to Mary E. Wells. On the 12th, Philip Cox to Cella Cox. On the 13th, Marion Patterson to Amanda Perkins. Parties all residents of this county.

—W. H. Phillips and family moved to Lebanon last Monday. We have had an influx of drummers for the last two weeks that has never been equaled in the history of Liberty; averaging sometimes three to four per day. Johnnie Tanner and his sister, Miss Nellie, of McKinney, were with friends here the first of this week. James Bryant and family, of Middleburg, will start to California in about two weeks, where they expect to make their future home. Jesse P. Royalty, of Middleburg, was here four days last week, visiting his father and sister. Mrs. Nila Adams is visiting relatives in the East End of the county. Miss Dora Holtzlaw has returned after a two month visit to friends in Boyle and Garrard counties. Mrs. Lula Shepherd, of Evansville, Indiana, is visiting her nephews, J. B. and Geo. Stone, of this place. George Fortman, of your city, was at home with the old folks last Sunday and Monday.

Desirable House and Lot

—IN STANFORD—

FOR SALE!

I offer for sale privately my House and Lot, conveniently located, in the West end of Stanford. The lot has, besides the dwelling and out houses, a cottage suitable for a small family, and the whole lies in such a way that several more cottages could be built, giving to each a good yard and garden. Persons desiring such property will please call on or address me at Stanford, or apply to W. P. Walton, of the EVANSON JOURNAL.
